

du·al·i·ty [doo-al-i-tee]

1. A dual state or quality.
2. The quality or character of being twofold; dichotomy.
3. being twofold; a classification into two opposed parts or subclasses;
"the dichotomy between eastern and western culture"

Naske Sándor

Think of opposites. Think of things in life that are dualities.

think of a WORD PLAY . . .

think . . . build

(have the courage to misspell)

For this project you will:

- create a work that has a duality (or multiple dualities)
- use the techniques at your disposal to create the opportunity for you to speak about things that oppose each other (physically or conceptually)
