

Kitsch!!

Wiki says, "kitsch is said to be a gesture imitative of the superficial appearances of art. It is often said that kitsch relies on merely repeating convention and formula, lacking the sense of creativity and originality displayed in genuine art."

psuedo art?

ruminare on this:

- tacky sentimentality
- cheesy melodrama
- grandma's mawkishness

Do NOT simply remake these or other similar objects. You must ponder your relationship to such outward manifestations of emotional display.

THEN (decide)

What is your take on kitsch art?
Is it the anti-art?
What about the consumer?
