

UTILITY

For this assignment:

make a set of utilitarian objects designed to be used for food or liquid

- combine any or all of the handbuilding techniques we have learned so far
- think about how and when it's used
- research, learn, discover remember that attention to detail is critical:

viewers interact with functional objects differently than non functional objects